development of such plans, each institution shall nominate a member of its staff to coordinate activities arising under this MOU.

ARTICLE IV

Both institutions agree and undertake to keep confidential at all times information and/or data that may be exchanged, acquired and/or shared in connection with the area of cooperation, as mentioned above, unless otherwise the same information already exists in the public domain. The Parties will not use the information for the purpose other than that specified in this MoU without the prior written consent of the other Party.

ARTICLE V

Ownership of findings of any joint research shall be vested in both institutions under this MOU and any publications regarding the same shall only be possible after prior approval from both institutions. The use of the name, logo and/or official emblem of the Parties on any publication, document and/or paper will require prior permission of both the Parties. It may, however, be ensured that the official emblem and logo is not misused by either institution.

Should the activities under the MOU give rise to Intellectual Property (IP), the Parties shall enter into separate agreement that will specifically provide for ownership, management and commercialization of rights to such IP, in line with rules and regulations of India.

ARTICLE VI

In case of any dispute or difference of opinion or any misuse of any information arises between the parties connected to this MOU/agreement, such disputes or difference of opinion shall be resolved amicably by mutual consultation.

Notwithstanding anything contained in above para, in case of any dispute or difference of opinion falling under the exception to the ambit of Administrative Mechanism for Resolution of CPSEs Disputes (AMRCD) the party to this MOU/agreement with mutual consent may take recourse of any alternative dispute settlement mechanism including arbitration for settlement of such disputes as per applicable law and procedure. Further, also that all the differences or disputes including publication related disputes concerning intellectual property rights arising out of any activities performed under this agreement shall be in first attempt settled through mutual deliberations, failing which shall be further settled in terms of applicable laws and procedure. The Courts at Chandigarh have jurisdiction for any civil proceedings for settlement of any dispute including or mediation, arbitration proceedings.

ARTICLE VII

This MOU shall remain in force for a period of 05 (Five) years from the date of its signing and may by way of amendment be renewed with the three-month prior notice to other party for such period and on such terms and conditions as agreed by the parties. However, either party has right to terminate this MoU by serving 03 (Three) months prior reasoned notice in writing to other party.

ARTICLE VIII

Both the PEC Chandigarh and UOL Ladakh reserve their right to terminate this MOU by either institution by giving 3 (Three) months written notice to the other. Where such termination occurs, the provisions of this MOU shall continue to apply to ongoing activities until their completion.
